Washington, DC 20515

Dear Colleague:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Germany, scheduled for August 3 to 11, 2017, sponsored by the Ripon Society and the Franklin Center for Global Policy Exchange. We note that this trip includes three days at your personal expense.

You must complete a Member/Officer Post-Travel Disclosure Form and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. You must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $390 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House Members may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $390] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments filed with the Committee, and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

The Honorable Patrick J. Tiberi

Business Attire

9:15 am Gather in main lobby to walk to Axica for policy panels

9:30 am-11:00 am Panel 1: The Importance of International Trade

Coming off an electoral victory arguably fueled by the denouncement of free trade and globalization, the Trump Administration appears to be pivoting U.S. trade policy towards a more protectionist and “fair trade”-focused philosophy guided by the principle of “America First.” This panel will discuss this apparent policy shift, the important aspects of free trade, and how future bilateral agreements such as TTIP can benefit the U.S. and European economies. Given its strength in the EU, the talk will also touch on the role Germany may play in accomplishing the lofty goal of a Free Trade Agreement between the U.S. and EU, as well as what trade and trade agreements, whether free or fair, should resemble in order to achieve maximum benefits for all stakeholders

The Honorable Frank Lucas (R-OK)

The Honorable Bill Pascrell (D-NJ)

10:00 am-11:00 am Historian led visit to Schloss Cecilienhof

Seventy-two years ago this summer, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Winston Churchill and Josef Stalin came together at the Schloss Cecilienhof to hold the Potsdam Conference. It would be the last meeting of the "Big Three" in World War II, where they would discuss the end of the conflict and what would come next. To the extent that America's global alliances are being reassessed today, the purpose of the visit to this historical site is to illustrate the importance of cooperative decision-making among nations, and how the decisions made by one generation can shape the world for years to come.

11:00 am-11:15 am Depart for the Dorint Hotel for policy panel sessions in Ballroom

11:30 am-12:30 pm Panel 3: 21st Century Global Engagement and Foreign Aid

A discussion in Potsdam examining the legacy of the Potsdam Conference which led to a divided Germany and Berlin and the Marshall Plan on the occasion of its 70th anniversary.
